 Tim has been a touring concert musician, recording artist, and worship leaders for over 25 years, and has taught guitar throughout his career. Tim loves teaching and seeing students learn and discover the joy of playing guitar. He works with all levels and ages, and customizes lessons to accommodate and challenge each student. Lesson times are on Mondays &amp; Tuesdays from 2-7pm.	 Emma started playing piano at the age of 7 and has been teaching lessons for all ages and skill levels since college. She received her Bachelor's degree in Music with an emphasis in Church Music and Worship from Azusa Pacific University in Southern California. Whether singing in choir, leading worship, or teaching, Emma's passion for music and her excitement to share it with others is a driving force in her life. Lessons are tailored to the specific skill levels and goals of each student and she looks forward to being part of your musical journey! Lesson times are Tuesdays 3:30-6:30pm.	 Daren has found himself in almost every musical situation possible. Rock bands, jazz bands, orchestra, and country, concert band, marching band and pep band. Daren majored in music education while at NDSU. He has played in many venues ranging from large-scale rock concerts to small ensemble coffee shop jazz groups—and even done some studio work. He will teach drumming for any style of music. Lesson times can vary depending on the best time for both student and instructor. Please contact me directly.
Chris Barrett Guitar/Piano	School Of Music
858-335-1536	Instructor Biographies
 Chris has been serving in music ministry for over 10 years in various positions. He has a deep passion for music and worship and desires to see people encounter God through that. His experience in teaching goes back to high school where he began teaching piano. From there, he went on to also teach guitar, drums, and voice. He received his Bachelor's degree in Church Music and Worship from Azusa Pacific University in Los Angeles, CA. Chris is a dynamic teacher who loves seeing his students thrive and discover a new joy for music in their lives.	Please contact the              instructors directly to              arrange lesson times.
	 Brenda has been playing piano since a young age and has been involved in church music for many years. She has given lessons to a variety of ages and skill levels and enjoys encouraging people to use their musical talent for the Lord. Lesson days and times are flexible. Please contact her directly and arrange the best time.

LESSON POLICIES:

1. Students need to complete the registration form (online at www.myriversidechurch.com/schoolofmusic) on or before their first lesson.
2. All teachers and students will follow the School of Music calendar year to maintain consistency and uniformity in the School of Music.
3. Tuition is to be paid to the instructor at the first lesson of the month for the entire month in order to ensure that teachers are paid for their services and to encourage students to attend all lessons for the month.
4. Students are responsible for the cost of their lesson books and materials.
5. If teachers need to cancel a lesson, they will make up the lesson or refund the tuition for that lesson.
6. If students need to cancel a lesson, please give the teacher 24 hour notice. Missed lessons without advance notification will not be made up or refunded. Exceptions will be made for sickness or emergencies.
7. Traditionally there has been a recital for the School of Music. All students are strongly encouraged to participate and to invite friends and family. Recitals will be scheduled in the Video Café of the Big Lake campus of Riverside Church.
